CE/CME Credit: ACOPC Summer Conference 2016 “Anatomy of Recovery: Peaks and Valleys”

Please select which Continuing Education Credit (CE) you need when you register online.

Program Description

The Keynote Speaker, Secretary Gary Tennis, Department of Drug and Alcohol Programs, will provide a broad perspective on the future of substance use prevention and treatment systems in the Commonwealth. The other topics will present specific strategies for individuals with substance use disorders and assist them along with their families, friends, and community to prevent overdoses and to facilitate pathways to recovery. Strategy presentations will be augmented by hearing from individuals regarding the assistance that assisted them in achieving long term recovery.

Target Audience

Physical and behavioral healthcare providers, pharmacists, addiction specialists, recovery and rehabilitation organizations, county drug and alcohol personnel, students, criminal justice services, harm reduction organizations, media representatives, and a variety of community support and services groups and parents/mentors and any others who would like to learn more about preventing overdoses.

PLEASE READ EACH CURRENTLY AVAILABLE CE/CME DESCRIPTION CAREFULLY AND FOLLOW THE SPECIFIC DIRECTIONS FOR THE CE YOU SELECT. Each description includes information on what is needed to obtain these credits. For your convenience, any forms required for the CE will be available on the www.ACOPC.pitt.edu website to be filled-out prior to your arrival.
