

Information Request Form

Instructions: If you are interested in using the Pittsburgh Fatigability Scale (PFS), please complete this form and email it to Dr. Nancy W. Glynn at epidnwg@pitt.edu. Any additional questions should also be directed to Dr. Glynn.

Name
Email
Institution
City	Country
Position/Degree

In three sentences or less, describe why you would like to use the PFS

Please select which PFS translation you would like to receive*:
<input type="checkbox"/> Chinese (Mainland)	<input type="checkbox"/> Dutch	<input type="checkbox"/> German	<input type="checkbox"/> Spanish (Catalan)
<input type="checkbox"/> Chinese (Traditional)	<input type="checkbox"/> English	<input type="checkbox"/> Indian (Telugu)	<input type="checkbox"/> Spanish (Spain)
<input type="checkbox"/> Danish	<input type="checkbox"/> French	<input type="checkbox"/> Korean	<input type="checkbox"/> Spanish (US)

Any additional documents you are requesting:
<input type="checkbox"/> Imputation Code (SAS)	<input type="checkbox"/> Manual of procedures
<input type="checkbox"/> Imputation Code (Stata)	<input type="checkbox"/> PFS clean copy (PDF)

If you do not see your desired language, further information will be necessary. You will need to complete additional documents including a license agreement with the University of Pittsburgh. Complete and return the Information Request form to begin the process.