ProQuest Agreement

Traditional Publishing Agreement

This Agreement is between the author (Author) and ProQuest LLC, through its ProQuest® Dissertation Publishing business (ProQuest). Under this Agreement, Author grants ProQuest certain rights to preserve, archive and publish the dissertation or thesis, abstract, and index terms (the Work) provided by Author to ProQuest.

Section I. License for Inclusion of the Work in ProQuest® Publishing Program.

Grant of Rights. Author hereby grants to ProQuest the non-exclusive, worldwide right to reproduce, distribute, display and transmit the Work (in whole or in part) in such tangible and electronic formats as may be in existence now or developed in the future. Author further grants to ProQuest the right to include the abstract, bibliography and other metadata in the ProQuest Dissertations and Theses database (PQDT) and in ProQuest's Dissertation Abstracts International and any successor or related index and/or finding products or services.

ProQuest® Publishing Program - Election and Elements. The rights granted above shall be exercised according to the publishing option selected by Author on the previous Publishing Options screen, and subject to the following additional Publishing Program requirements:

- Redistribution of the Work. Except as restricted by Author in the publishing option selected, the rights granted by Author automatically include (1) the right to allow sale and distribution of the Work, in whole or in part, by agents and distributors, and (2) the right to make the Abstract, bibliographic data and any meta data associated with the Work available to search engines and harvesters.
- Restrictions. ProQuest will use commercially reasonable efforts to restrict the distribution of the Work as provided under the publishing option selected by Author or as later elected by Author through direct contact with ProQuest. Such election is subject to Author's Degree Granting Institution Directives (see below). With respect to restrictions requested after submission of the Work, Author acknowledges that ProQuest cannot recall or amend previously distributed versions of the Work. Refer to Guide 4 for information about access and restrictions.
- Removal of Work from the Program. ProQuest may elect not to distribute the Work if it believes that all necessary rights of third parties have not been secured. Refer to Guide 5 for information about copyright and your dissertation or thesis. If Author's degree is rescinded, and the degree-granting institution so directs, ProQuest will expunge the Work from its publishing program in accordance with its then current publishing policies.
- Degree Granting Institution Directives. Author is solely responsible for any conflict between policies and directions of Author's degree-granting institution, Author's choice of publishing model, and/or any restriction Author places on the use of the Work. For the avoidance of doubt, ProQuest is not responsible for access to the Work that is provided by Author's degree-granting institution through its library or institutional repository. Author must work directly with Author's degree granting institution to ensure application of any restrictions to access relating to the Work by Author's degree granting institution.

Copyright and Deposit with the Library of Congress. At Author's option, as indicated in the Register U.S. Copyright screen of the online submission process, and upon payment of the applicable fee, ProQuest will submit an application for registration of Author's copyright in the Work in Author's name. In addition, regardless of whether copyright registration of the Work is sought, ProQuest may make a copy of the Work available to the Library of Congress in digital, microform or other format as required by the Library of Congress.

Delivery of the Work. Author shall provide to ProQuest the Work and all necessary supporting documents during the online submission process, according to Guide 1: Preparing Your Manuscript for Submission.

Rights Verification. Author represents and warrants that Author is the copyright holder of the Work and has obtained all necessary rights to permit ProQuest to reproduce and distribute third party materials contained in any part of the Work, including all necessary licenses for any non-public, third party software necessary to access, display, and run or print the Work. Author is solely responsible and will indemnify ProQuest for any third party claims related to the Work as submitted for publication.

Section II. Rights pursuant to Traditional Publishing.

Author's election of Traditional as the type of Publishing confirms Author's choice to have ProQuest publish the Work according to the Traditional Publishing option described below.

Traditional Publishing. ProQuest may exercise the rights granted under Section I above including through the sale of individual copies of the Work in tangible or electronic media and/or as part of electronic database and reference products or services.

Publishing Fees and Royalties. There is no publishing fee charged for dissertations and theses submitted through the ProQuest® ETD Administrator.

Author's institution may assess additional fees.

ProQuest will pay royalties of 10% of its net revenue from sales of the Work, conditioned on Author maintaining a current address on record with ProQuest. Royalties will be paid when accrued earned royalties reach $25.00 USD. If, after 25 years, earned royalties do not accrue to at least $25.00 USD, ProQuest's royalty payment obligation will cease.

Acknowledgement: I have read, understand and agree to this ProQuest Agreement, including all rights and restrictions included within the publishing option that I have chosen.

Register U.S. Copyright

Congratulations on the completion of a momentous milestone in your career!

Protect Your Research

Take the next step towards protecting your intellectual property by registering your copyright with the U.S. Copyright Office. Because of the availability of content on the open web via repositories and other avenues, registering your U.S. copyright can be a significant benefit for the protection of your work. ProQuest can file all your paperwork with the U.S. Copyright Office immediately upon your dissertation approval and delivery.

No-effort Filing

Filing through ProQuest requires no additional work from you and once registration is granted, it ensures that your rights are secured to the fullest extent allowable under U.S. law. ProQuest's experienced professionals process tens of thousands of applications with the government a year, helping to streamline the process and allowing authors to focus on launching and accelerating their careers.

Copyright Protection Benefits

Registering with the U.S. Copyright Office establishes your claim to the copyright for your dissertation/thesis and provides certain protections if your copyright is violated. Once registered, your dissertation or thesis becomes eligible for statutory damages and recovery of attorney fees. Registration of a work is required prior to being able to sue for copyright infringement, and you may claim statutory damages and attorney's fees only for infringements occurring after your work is registered. Statutory damages are set out in Title 17, Section 504 of the U.S. Code, and range from $750-$150,000 USD per infringement. This contrasts with infringements occurring prior to copyright registration which are only eligible to recover actual damages with no recovery of attorneys fees.

More Benefits of Registration
- Registration establishes a public record of the author's copyright in a work
- The registration certificate serves as prima facie evidence of validity in court (if you register within five years after publication).
- Registration made prior to commencement of the infringement, or within three months of the first publication, entitles the owner to statutory damages and attorneys' fees.

If you wish, ProQuest Dissertation Publishing will act on your behalf as your agent with the U.S. Copyright Office and apply for copyright registration as part of the publishing process.

ProQuest will:
- Prepare an application in your name
- Submit your application fee
- Deposit the required copy or copies of the manuscript
- Triage any issues that arise with filing
- Mail you the completed certificate of registration from the Library of Congress

1. Previous U.S. Copyright Registration

Has registration for your published dissertation/thesis, or for an earlier version of the manuscript, been made with the Copyright Office?

○ Yes - copyright was previously filed   ○ No   ← Unless you have previously filed

2. Requesting ProQuest to file for U.S. Copyright Registration

○ No, do not file for copyright—I am requesting that ProQuest not file for copyright on my behalf.   ← Unless you would like to file for a new copyright

○ Yes, file for a new copyright—I am requesting that ProQuest file for copyright on my behalf.

☐ Required: Select the checkbox to indicate you have read, understood, and agree to the following:
- I will pay a fee of $75.00 (U.S. dollars) to ProQuest for filing on my behalf with the U.S. Copyright Office.
- I am the sole author of the dissertation or thesis I submitted to ProQuest.
- I do not acknowledge any co-authors or co-claimants of my work.

NOTE

Before your work will be published to ProQuest, it must first complete a series of processes that involve you, your university, and ProQuest. While the timeline for the completion of those steps taken by you and your university may vary widely, those that ProQuest is responsible for typically take between 2–4 weeks, which may be influenced by high-volume periods.

If you have chosen to delay the release of your work, only the citation and abstract will be published immediately. The full text will be published on the date you selected.

If you have other questions about your ETD, you may contact your graduate office.
